LICENSING YOUR VEHICLE

WARNING
YOU COULD BE PROSECUTED
FOR DRIVING AN UNLICENSED VEHICLE

Licensing Your Vehicles

ALL
VEHICLES
MUST BE LICENSED!

*All Vehicles are licensed according to the last digit of their Identification Mark. (Commonly known as the Registration Number)

E.g. P201 → by 31st January
P205 → by 31st May
P200 → by 31st October

(1) HOW TO LICENSE YOUR VEHICLE

Take your vehicle and valid insurance documents to the Vehicle Inspection Centre at the Ministry of Infrastructure, Communications, Utilities and Housing for examination.

If your vehicle is road worthy you will be issued a certificate signed by the Examining Officer.

The certificate is presented to the clerk at the Inspection center to process your license fees. The documents is presented to the cashier for payment of examination and licensing fees.

Upon payment a receipt and licensed sticker will be issued. The sticker should be displayed in the top right and corner of your windshield if the vehicle is a left hand drive, and at the top left hand corner if the vehicle is a right hand drive.

*Your Certificate of Road Worthiness is only valid for payment seven days after inspection.

(2) LICENSING YOUR NEW VEHICLE

A registration form should be collected at the Inland Revenue Department or the Vehicle Inspection Centre at the Ministry of Infrastructure, Communications, Utilities and Housing and completed.

To register the vehicle, a fee of $ 120 is payable. You will be issued an Identification Mark at a cost of $ 100.00.

Your vehicle is now ready for examination at the Vehicle Inspection Centre. Remember to take along your insurance and registration documents.

NB see section (1) for other general information

(3) SELLING YOUR VEHICLE

When a vehicle is being sold, transfer of ownership forms should be collected at the Inland Revenue Department or the Vehicle Inspection Centre and completed by the seller and the purchaser. A fee of $45.00 is payable once completed.

* The transfer of ownership form has to be registered within seven days of the transfer.

NEED AN IDENTIFICATION MARK?

If you have purchased a vehicle and wish to transfer your Identification Mark to the new vehicle, a fee of $120.00 is payable.

*A vehicle which was not licensed for three(3) years will automatically lose its Identification Mark.

If your vehicle is in a state of disrepair or off the road, you should give written notice either to the Vehicle Inspection Centre or the Comptroller of Inland Revenue.

Similarly, a vehicle permanently removed from the Island loses its Identification Mark

(4) PUBLIC SERVICE VEHICLES

If you have a public service vehicle e.g.. A rental or taxi, it should be inspected every six months. All taxi drivers should display on their vehicles the number of passengers they are licensed to carry.
