4. THE APPOINTMENT PROCEDURE

General

4.1 Applications are welcome from all those who satisfy the published eligibility requirements.

Confidentiality

4.2 The Judicial and Legal Services Commission will treat all applications and supporting information as confidential until the consultation process when the persons consulted shall be notified of the candidates so that they may provide feedback if they so desire.

Interviews

4.3 Selected applicants will be invited to an interview.

Consultation

4.4 Applications will normally be subject to written consultation only.

- 4.5 Persons to be consulted (referees) will include the Judges of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court, constituent Bar Associations, the OECS Bar Association and persons nominated by the applicant. For applicants outside the OECS, consultation in the relevant territory will be with the Judiciary through the Chief Justice and with relevant professional Associations.
- 4.6 No single referee's view of an applicant is decisive.
- 4.7 You will be provided with the referee forms and guidelines for referees. You will be responsible for sending the form and guide to each of the three persons whom you would have listed at Part E of the application form. The forms should be distributed to the referees by the applicant but should be returned to the Secretary, JLSC directly and not through the applicant. Failure to comply with the instructions will result in the reference being rejected.

Allegations of misconduct

- 4.8 The Judicial and Legal Services Commission will attach no weight to un-particularized allegations of misconduct. It will consider any specific allegations of misconduct in their full context, including the views of the applicant concerned. If a specific allegation of misconduct is made, the Judicial and Legal Services Commission will seek the referee's consent to send details of the allegation to the applicant, to enable him or her to comment on the allegation.

The Judicial and Legal Services Commission emphasizes that if consent is not given to reveal details of any allegations of misconduct to the applicant concerned, it will disregard the allegation.

- 4.9 This applies only to specific allegations of misconduct; it does not apply to more general reservations expressed about an individual's professional abilities and qualities. For practical purposes, 'misconduct' refers to conduct which, if the allegations were substantiated, would be regarded by a professional Association as an infringement of the relevant principles of professional conduct; and/or might, prima facie, cause the Judicial and Legal Services Commission to consider whether to initiate disciplinary proceedings, where the person concerned is a holder of a relevant judicial or legal office.

Assumption of Duty

4.10 In the event of an appointment the candidate would be expected to take up the appointment as soon as possible, subject to a reasonable period being allowed for disengagement from existing obligations.
